Mussell Named New CAES President

Guelph, ON (July 13, 2011) George Morris Centre Senior Research Associate Al Mussell has just begun a one-year term as the President of the Canadian Agricultural Economics Society (CAES). Mussell's term began at the Society's annual meeting in Banff, Alberta on June 29th.

"My colleagues and I at the Centre are very pleased that Al Mussell has been asked to serve in this leadership position," said Bob Seguin, Executive Director. "Both Al and the George Morris Centre have had a long involvement with the CAES, and Al has articulated a bold vision for the Society".

Larry Martin, George Morris Centre Senior Fellow and former CEO, previously served as CAES President.

Al Mussell said, "This is an exceptionally exciting time in the field of agricultural economics, and I'm pleased to have the opportunity to be involved in this way".

The George Morris Centre is Canada's independent agri-products think tank, dedicated to provoking informed dialogue on policies and issues and fostering excellence in the agri-products sector.
